

Education Facilitator

Hours of Work: 18 – 20 hours per week, Tuesday to Thursday or Monday to Thursday

Fixed term for 18 months for a term time only arrangement

Fixed term for 12 months for a non-term time only arrangement

Salary: £22,500 (pro -rata)

Our short-term educational projects support vulnerable young people and adults to better understand the importance of healthy relationships and sex and how to keep themselves and others safe. Participants attend up to seven one-hour sessions and sessions are designed to be delivered on a 1-1 basis or in groups. We work in a range of provisions across Cambridgeshire e.g. schools, colleges, housing projects and sessions can also be delivered online.

If you have experience of supporting vulnerable young people and adults and a strong interest in ensuring that they have the education and support to make their own informed choices; this might be the job for you! Full training on our projects will be given to the successful person.

We offer hybrid working i.e., home and office based and flexible working providing it meets both the needs of the role and the organisation.

If you'd like to find out more about Diverse and what this job entails, you can join us for an informal information session online.
